

The following complaints are received about Councillor Ford. Which of them could be a breach of the new Code of Conduct?

- Cllr Ford is given a fixed penalty notice for parking on a double yellow line.
- Cllr Ford is convicted of drink driving.
- Cllr Ford is cautioned for driving without due care and attention.
- Cllr Ford is convicted of theft of a bicycle.

Would your answer be different if he was the executive member with responsibility for crime and disorder reduction?

Cllr Ford is convicted under the Licensing Act 2003 of selling alcohol to under-age youths from premises in his council's area. Would your answer be different if the premises were in the area of another authority?