

[REDACTED], I've tried to contact you to discuss the interests query you mentioned to Susan Ranson . The Councillor concerned should register any employment and the employer's identity in the register of interests . Sensitive information need not be included in the register . Under the code the Monitoring Officer has to agree that the information is sensitive and that it can therefore be excluded . Sensitive information means information whose availability for public inspection creates , or is likely to create , a serious risk that the councillor or a person who lives with them may be subjected to violence or intimidation . The question therefore is what is the basis for the councillor believing that the councillor's employment and/or employer , if made known , would be likely to create a serious risk of violence or intimidation ? Does this help ? If you or the councillor would like to discuss the circumstances in more detail , please let me know . Kind regards .David .
